some salve for it but $\frac{1}{2}$ did not do any good. Then I consulted another doctor and he could not tell me what it was but gave me some salve for it and some medicine for my blood, but the trouble still grew worse. At last I was advised by a friend who had suffered as I did to try the Cuticura Remedica. So I went and purchased a complete set of Cuticura for one dollar and after using them for two weeks all the sores disappeared and in about four weeks I felt I was completely cured. Altogether I had the exema for about four years and I am confident that if I had used Cuticura sooner it would have saved me a great connect that if I had used Cutcurs sconer it would have saved me a great deal of suffering and loss of money for doctors' bills.
